then wanted to live abroad
and learn more of Europe

High school summer exchange in Germany in 2009

Investment banking Internship in London in 2016

...and met interesting people along the way!

EU youth conference in Hungary in 2008

Awesome United Europe
seminar in Nice in 2018...

WHAT?

My European Story - Ivana

I love to travel (in Europe)...

I am from Croatia, but I live in Germany...

Germany means many, many different nationalities

...I extract the best from both cultures!

Use every opportunity to push the integration of different cultures

HOW?

Use all the opportunities you can have!

How to travel in EU

- You can actually go anywhere without a visa, just remember to take your ID with you
- EU offers free interrail pass for people turning 18
- There is plenty of low-cost airlines and bus companies(check from e.g. SkyScanner, FlixBus) and economical hostels
